February 2021

LGBTQ+ history month

A celebration of history,
arts, literature and film

A GUIDE TO EVENTS IN LAMBETH

Lambeth

I am delighted to invite you to this year's LGBTQ+ history month. The theme for February 2021 is Body, Mind, Spirit. Lambeth Libraries will host a series of events including Q&As with authors, history talks and reading sessions for all ages that explore the contribution LGBTQ+ people have made to all our lives.

Lambeth Libraries have co-ordinated this programme to give an insight into LGBTQ+ history, giving us all the opportunity to understand and challenge discrimination and promote equality, diversity and inclusion. The vibrancy of Lambeth is very well reflected in the diversity of our communities and our commitment to equality. I hope you will join us.

Book28 Library Workshop Tuesday 2 February, 7pm

Eventbrite

Book28 Library Workshop

A talk and interactive workshop from the Book28 Library on LGBTQ+ literature and libraries. Book28 is a small LGBTQ+ library held at the Outside Project (a LGBTQ+ homeless shelter in Clerkenwell). It's named in part after the Section 28 punitive law of the 1980s and aims to look at the way it has had lasting impact on library services for LGBTQ+ people today. A key part of the project is encouraging good LGBTQ+ collections in libraries everywhere.

The group will talk about how the project came about, how the pandemic has affected their work and will lead discussions with event attendees about their own routes into LGBTQ+ literature and the books we enjoy. There will be plenty of time for discussion and book recommendations. For more information on Book28 <https://book28.weebly.com/>

Pride & Prejudice in Poland: Writers Fighting LGBT Free Zones

Thursday 4 February, 7pm

Eventbrite

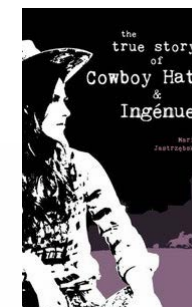

Pride & Prejudice in Poland

The situation of LGBTQ+ people in Poland – never very good – has been deteriorating fast under the current right-wing, populist government. There are attacks on non-heteronormative people, constant attempts at curbing their rights. There are protests, marches and people are being arrested. Recently the fight for the rights of LGBTQ+ people has also become part of a wider wave of demonstrations under the umbrella of the Women's Black Protests, which has shaken Poland since the attempt at making the abortion law even more restrictive. At the same time more and more local authorities across Poland are choosing to proclaim themselves as "LGBT-free" zones. How does this whole upheaval impact literature and writers? What is writers' involvement and response, if any?

With Jacek Dehnel, acclaimed poet and novelist from Poland, now based in Berlin, as well as UK-based poets and translators Maria Jastrzębska and Anna Blasiak. Chaired by Dr Roch Dunin-Wąsowicz from the UCL and LSE.

Lambeth Links Launch Saturday 6 February, 2pm

Eventbrite

Lambeth Links

Lambeth Links is the new LGBTQ+ community forum for Lambeth.

Our vision is for Lambeth Links to be a central point of rallying, communication and advocacy on behalf of the LGBTQ+ Community who live, work and socialise in our borough. We aim to strengthen the links between us, yet at the same time highlight the many issues that still adversely affect our communities. Join us online as we officially launch and hear about our plans for the future and how you can help us raise our voice to the service providers in the borough.

Heroes from the Archives Monday 8 February

Online Podcast: Listen on Apple, Spotify, and other podcast platforms, or at <https://anchor.fm/sheffield-libraries>

Archivists from Sheffield with Jon Newman from Lambeth Archives delve into their collections to tell the stories of LGBTQ+ heroes from both Sheffield and Lambeth. We'll also discuss ongoing archive collection building.

Box Hill with Adam Mars-Jones

Tuesday 9 February, 7pm

Eventbrite

Box Hill with Adam Mars-Jones

Join Adam Mars-Jones to discuss Box Hill. On the Sunday of his eighteenth birthday, in 1975, Colin takes a walk on Box Hill, a biker hang-out. There he accidentally trips over Ray, a biker napping under a tree and that's where it all starts. This transgressive, darkly affecting love story between men, winner of the 2019 Fitzcarraldo Editions Novel Prize, is a stunning novel of desire and domination by one of Britain's most accomplished writers. Event organised by The Friends of Carnegie Library.

The Mark of Lilith film showing and Director Q&A Wednesday 10 February, 7pm

Eventbrite

The Mark of Lilith

Mark of Lilith (1986, 32 mins, Dirs Polly Gladwin, Zachary Mack-Nataf, Bruna Fionda), an independent horror film in which black lesbian filmmaker Zena, interested in the depiction of women in art, meets Lilla, a white, undead wraith, through a film come true. Playing off the lesbian vampire film motif of the 1970s, the film deconstructs the traditional image of the vampire and the horror genre itself by exploring the politics of race and relationships. With scenes filmed at Brixton's Ritzy Cinema in the 1980s, the film is an important part of its black queer history, fictionalising LGBTQ life in Lambeth during this time. The film is courtesy of Cinenova and held as part of their collections of feminist film and video made from the 1910s to the early 2000s. <http://www.cinenova.org/> Join us to watch the film followed by conversation with the filmmakers. Event organised with Friends of Tate South Lambeth Library.

Lesbian Rom-Coms with Ciara Smyth and Kate Davies Thursday 11 February, 7pm

Eventbrite

Lesbian Rom-Coms with Ciara Smyth and Kate Davies

If you're looking for a romantic comedy involving a lesbian storyline, we have you covered. Join Ciara Smyth and Polari Prize winner Kate Davies for a night of all things Rom-Com. Ciara is the author of The Falling in Love Montage, where seventeen-year-old Saoirse, finished with exams and facing a long hot summer before uni, plans to party, get drunk, watch horror movies and forget all her troubles by kissing girls. Kate won the 2020 Polari Prize for In at the Deep End, about a twenty-something Londoner who realises she's a lesbian and thinks, 'I've opted out of the patriarchy! Now I'll have a truly equal relationship and lots of feminist sex!'

Berlin's Third Sex – Radical Readers discussion Friday 12 February, 7pm

Eventbrite

Lambeth Radical Readers

Join the Radical Readers reading group to discuss Berlin's Third Sex by Magnus Hirschfeld. Rough trade, drag kings, tea dances, sporty dykes, coded classified ads, campy nicknames, passing, outing, hustlers, beats and cruising at the YMCA – all accompanied by a wave of gay and lesbian activism. This was Germany's imperial capital at the dawn of the 20th century. Magnus Hirschfeld's Berlin's Third Sex reveals an astonishingly diverse gay subculture years ahead of the Weimar era, with cross-dressing cabaret, all-night parties and erotic license at every level of society. Hirschfeld's writing is a foundational text of modern gay identity, queer history captured by an insider: as it happened.

For a copy of the book and to join the discussion please contact the library on 020 7926 1056.

Eventbrite
Lambeth Links

Join us to take a look at the evolution of the provision of services in Lambeth for our community. We'll be joined by special guests from Healthwatch Lambeth, the independent champion for people who use health and social care services. How much has changed and how much has remained the same?

We will discuss services that existed then and now and talk about the ways in which we can make sure the needs and expectations of our community are taken into account when it comes to planning for services. Looking to the past to inform our future.

The Glamour Boys by Chris Bryant Monday 15 February, 7pm

Eventbrite
The Glamour Boys

In the early 1930s, a group of young, queer British MPs visited Berlin on a series of trips that would change the course of the Second World War. Having witnessed the Nazis' brutality first-hand, these men were some of the first to warn Britain about Hitler. Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain hated them, branding them 'the glamour boys' to insinuate something untoward about them, he had their phones tapped and threatened them with deselection and exposure. At a time when even the suggestion of homosexuality could land you in prison, the bravery these men were forced to show in their personal lives gave them extraordinary courage in public. Join author Chris Bryant to discuss his latest best-selling book The Glamour Boys. Organised with The Friends of Durning Library.

Her journey from Brixton to one of the most influential women in British rock is nothing short of extraordinary. Her success has been ground-breaking in every way, which has come at a personal cost. She has always been vocal about social and cultural issues and was championing LGBTQ+ rights at a time when few artists were out and gay. Join Skin to discuss her new biography and life from Brixton to Glastonbury and beyond. Book early for what will be a highlight of this year's festival.

Queer disabilities during the pandemic
Thursday 25 February, 7pm
Eventbrite
Queer disabilities during the pandemic

The Covid-19 pandemic has meant numerous things for disabled LGBTQ+ people. LGBTQ+ spaces and venues have become inaccessible for all, with social lives being moved online, by telephone and in online spaces. For those shielding, queer kinship and chosen families have been essential for support. The panel will be discussing their experiences in the past year and their thoughts on the way forward for a LGBTQ+ community that fosters accessibility and care. We'll be joined by Wayne, Sop and Michaela who will talk a little about their experiences of being queer, disabled and how the pandemic has impacted them with time to share all our experiences. Wayne Allingham performs as Sugar Cube. He has hosted his LGBTQ+ Disabled Queer and Hear drag cabaret night at RVT and Two Brewers and will restart in 2021. Sop is a London based non-binary artist and musician making film, performance, sound, writing, and workshops. Their work centres on modes of sociality rather than dominant notions of productivity and wellness. Exhibition, The Den, is now on at the Wellcome Collection until April 2021. Michaela works at Ignition Brewery in Sydenham which employs and trains people with learning disabilities to brew great beer.

In the Dream House: LGBTQ+ book club

Friday 26 February, 7pm

Eventbrite

In the Dream House: LGBTQ+ book club

In the Dream House is Carmen Maria Machado's engrossing and wildly innovative account of a relationship gone bad. Each chapter views the relationship through a different narrative lens, as Machado holds events up to the light and examines them from distinct angles. She casts a critical eye over legal proceedings, fairy tales, Star Trek and Disney villains, as well as iconic works of film and fiction, infusing all with her characteristic wit, playfulness and openness to enquiry.

For a copy of the book you can reserve it to be picked up at your local library on our online catalogue <http://libraries.lambeth.gov.uk> or by contacting your library. Copies can also be picked up at South Lambeth Library by contacting southlambethlibrary@lambeth.gov.uk or by phone 0207 926 0710.

census 2021

Ready, Steady, Census!

The decennial census is almost upon us. Households across Lambeth will soon be asked to take part in the nationwide survey of housing and the population. It has been carried out every decade since 1801, with the exception of 1941.

Information from the digital-first census will help decide how services are planned and funded in your local area. This could mean things like doctors' surgeries, housing or new bus routes. Census day is March 21.

This census there will be three new questions, one on previous service in the UK Armed Forces, and voluntary questions on sexuality and gender identity. These have been included in order to build a better picture of society, to combat inequality, and to show where services are needed. If you do not feel comfortable answering on the same form as the rest of your household, you can request an individual census questionnaire and answer separately. For more information on the census and why it is important to take part, please visit www.census.gov.uk.
