Who we are

- The Local Government Boundary Commission for England is an independent body set up by Parliament.
- We are not part of government or any political party.
- We are accountable to Parliament through a committee of MPs chaired by the Speaker of the House of Commons.
- Our main role is to carry out electoral reviews of local authorities throughout England.

Electoral review

An electoral review examines and proposes new electoral arrangements for a local authority, including:

- The total number of councillors representing the council's voters ('council size').
- The names, number and boundaries of wards or electoral divisions.
- The number of councillors for each ward or division.

Why Lambeth?

- The Commission has a legal duty to carry out an electoral review of each council in England 'from time to time'.
- Lambeth Borough Council has not been reviewed since 1999 and the Commission has therefore decided that it should review Lambeth in advance of the elections in 2022.

Our proposals

- Lambeth Borough Council currently has 63 councillors. Based on the evidence we received, we recommend that 63 councillors should serve the council in the future.
- We believe our final recommendations meet our statutory criteria to:
 1. Deliver electoral equality for voters
 2. Reflect community interests and identities
 3. Promote effective and convenient local government

Summary of our recommendations

We have considered all the submissions we received during our consultation on our draft recommendations.

The final recommendations propose that Lambeth should have 63 councillors, the same as there are now.

Lambeth should have 25 wards, an increase of four. The boundaries of all of the existing wards should change.

The 63 councillors should represent 13 three-councillor wards and 12 two-councillor wards across the borough.

An outline of the proposals is shown in the map to the right. A detailed report on the recommendations and interactive mapping is available on our website at: www.lgbce.org.uk.
